

SA993082

George III Elm, Oak and Padauk Bureau with Original Brasses c. 1780

Price

Sold*Item Reference: SA993082*Date of manufacture: Georgian

Description

A very good and rarely seen figured elm bureau with a fine interior of padauk faced drawers with brass drop handles and an oak central door, crossbanded in padauk, with original lock and working key and opening to reveal a secret padauk fronted drawer and oak lined interior. . The four long and graduated drawers retaining their original brass bail handles and escutcheons and with full elm original linings. . The fall on original hinges and with original escutcheon, lock and a working key. . This is a most exciting and rare combination of timbers and the bureau is extremely well made and strikingly beautiful with a rich colour and lovely natural patina to the elm. The bureau retaining original timbers throughout, and set on original bracket feet. . A really extraordinary Georgian bureau, substantial and practical. . Dimensions are: . 40.5 inches wide (max), 20.5 inches deep and 41.75 inches high. . Floor to writing surface is 31.5 inches. . For metric please multiply by 2.5

Seller Details

Webberley Antiques

East Sussex United Kingdom By appointment only.

Tel: 07765 233266

International Tel: +44 7765 233266

