Description

For your consideration is this high end and rare modernist three tier table . Dating to the 1930's and sourced in Europe, possibly French or Belgian in origin. These tables are extremely hard to source and are a must for buyer who appreciates the modernist pieces from the Deco period. This is a very sturdy and deceptively heavy piece. Perfect accent to any room and will integrate perfectly with both period and modern interiors. Please see dimensions to get the full flavour and size of this piece, this really is a rare opportunity. We've taken this piece through our workshops so has been professionally restored and is now offered to you in showroom condition. FREE UK mainland delivery
