Description

Fine quality Rosewood inlaid fold-over demilune game table, the top inlaid with a half paterae and boxwood banding, upon fine slender ring turn reeded supports terminating with brass casters, the centre reverse leg pulling out to reveal a single secret drawer. The intricate detailing and fine craftsmanship evident in these features make this table a standout piece in any room. It is structurally sound, and there is no evidence of any woodworm, ensuring the longevity of the piece. The table is offered in unrestored original condition.
