Description

An attractive early 19th century antique oak panelled coffer. The antique coffer is of rectangular form, and has a hinged lid which opens to reveal a spacious interior. The antique oak coffer has a three panel front, and panelled sides. Raised on block feet. A great example with a deep colour throughout. Item Ref; M-4748 . DIMENSIONS: Height - 65.5cm / Width - 123.5cm / Depth - 54cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks, scratches and stains to the top (pictured), further marks, scratches and shrinkage splits to the front. There are also splits and age-related shrinkage to the sides, however this doesn't affect the overall integrity of the product. There is evidence of historic woodworm (pictured), however this is now long gone and has been fully treated as a precaution. The antique oak panelled coffer remains structurally solid and sound. Overall, a good example of its kind. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as...
