Description

William IV mahogany chiffonier This William IV mahogany chiffonier was made circa 1830. It is fitted with a pair of drawers and a full width cupboard under. The drawers with brass knob handles. To each side of the cupboards are full height turned fluted columns, that go under the top, that then forms the turret corners. A lovely feature. The base of the turning is the turned legs that is part of the column. Antique chiffoniers are a most useful item for the home and can be used in many situations. As this is a good size it can be used in an alcove or that difficult space. Imagine owning this lovely chiffonier and the pleasure it will give you as well as providing plenty of storage. 87cms wide 34 1/4ins 39cms deep 15 1/4ins 84cms high 33ins All measurements are approximate.
