Description

This very practical oak draw leaf extending table which was made by the company Maple & Co this company made and supplied furniture to Royal households around the world due to their high quality. The table also has the original catalogue which will be given on purchase, this shows you the history and cost when new in 1920 so a great conversation piece whilst sitting around the table. This table has two pull out ends which can be adjusted according to the number of guests you wish to seat, standing on two carved supports and stretcher bar below the sides of the table are also beautifully carved. This table would look fantastic in a kitchen/ dining room.
