Description

A fine quality English George IV period library table. The freestanding table in rosewood, rounded corners, with two mahogany lined drawers, all best quality timbers, lovely turned column legs, with fine carved detail, joined by a hidden original supporting stretcher. The table is in good strong condition, and a lovely colour. The table has labels underneath for Wm Roddam, likely to have been made for Roddam Hall, near Wooler, Northumberland and only a few miles from our shop. Dated 1830. UK Delivery from £70.00
