Description

Henry John Hudson RA, SBA, RP 1841 - 1910 Portrait of King Edward VII 1841 -1910 signed with monogram oil on canvas 101.6 x 76.20 cm. (40 x 30in.) There is a three quarter length portrait of Edward VIII in his coronation robes in the collection of Ealing Town Hall, the portrait is signed and dated 1903, it is probable that this portrait was painted at the same time and shortly after the Kings Coronation on August 9, 1902. Provenance A Canadian Institution Notes Edward VII (1841-1910), king of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and the British dominions beyond the seas, and emperor of India, was born at Buckingham Palace, London, on 9 November 1841, the first son and second child of the nine children of Queen Victoria (1819-1901) and Prince Albert (1819-1861). He was named Albert Edward (against the advice of the prime minister, Lord Melbourne, who preferred Edward Albert), and he was commonly known by both names, except in the family, where he was called Bertie. Insistence on the primacy of the name Albert reflected the burden of the queen's expectations which the prince was to carry until 1901, when, on ascending the throne, he declared himself Edward....
