Description

A fine piece of Edwardian craftsmanship. This magnificent display cabinet represents the very peak of early 20th century furniture production. The cabinet is of a most unusual form with an oval mirror over three bow front glazed doors which open to a fabric lined shelved interior. The cabinet is supported by six tapering legs and is profusely decorated with inlaid floral swag and ribbon detailing. A superb piece of furniture that would grace the most top notch of home. Please see the other antique furniture we have listed. Dimensions- total height 222cm, working height 142cm, top shelf height 172cm, width 140cm and depth 45cm
