Description

This stunning small mantle clock is in great original condition, with only the smallest flick of veneer missing from the top at the rear. This isn't something that's noticeable. The clock is fronted by a 2.5inch round dial with a gilded engraved dial mask, Roman numerals and fine steel hands. The movement Stamped V.A.P Brevet  465 is in fantastic working order powered by what's is typically known as a London style pendulum and Single train spring. The movement winds and adjusts from the rear. The movement is very much the quality and style of a good quality carriage clock.
