

SA994733

Set of 8 Very Good Early 19th
Century Mahogany Dining
Chairs of Queen Anne Design c.
1820

Price

Sold

Item Reference: SA994733

Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Description

A wonderful set of well shaped, heavy, robust and solid mahogany dining chairs - two carvers and six standard chairs in the Queen Anne manner. Each with lovely cabriole legs set on a Braganza styled toe and with drop in rush seats - and the mahogany of a fabulous rich colour and all the chairs in exceptionally good original condition. The rush seats in excellent order also and the chairs are very comfortable and usable. . Fabulous set of early 19th century chairs from a private home and made by hand in c. 1820. . . Dimensions are: . Standards - 21.5 inches wide, 19 inches deep and 40 inches high. . Floor to seat is 17.5 inches. . Carvers - 23 inches wide, 22 inches deep and 42 inches high. . Floor to seat is 17.5 inches. . For metric please multiply by 2.5

Seller Details

Webberley Antiques

East Sussex United Kingdom By appointment only.

Tel: 07765 233266

International Tel: +44 7765 233266