Description

A very large and impressive Victorian breakfront bookcase made from beautiful figured mahogany veneers. The tall arched glazed doors open to accommodate fifteen original and fully adjustable shelves (not photographed), offering ample book or display space. The substantial base with three hidden drawers above spacious cupboards with matching arched panels. All standing on a plinth base and topped with a substantial cornice. Complete with keys. This is a large item at 9ft tall and 78 inches wide. In good country house condition; there is a small section of cornice missing to one side; not detrimental to use or appearance, there are some general surface marks and wear commensurate with age and use. The glass is free from any damage/cracks etc.
