Description

This is an antique gentleman's soap case. An English, sterling silver travelling box with hallmarks, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910. Delightful soap case with a fascinating Edwardian monogram. Displays a desirable aged patina with a gently aged finish. Quality sterling silver presents well, with a bright appearance. Resplendent with a superb engraved monogram M to the lid. Hallmarks for Cohen & Charles, the Lion Rampant, Chester assay mark and letter K for 1910. This is a wonderful antique gent's soap case, with a pleasingly chamfered form and enhanced with a bold monogram. Perfect for the frequent traveller. Delivered polished and ready to use.
