This is a fine quality antique English 18th century triple panel Georgian coffer, made from solid oak, displaying a stunning colour, circa 1720, in good original condition. Boasting wide and low proportions, the Georgian coffer is constructed with a solid oak triple-panel top, with a joined section below, which is constructed with butt joints to the corners, secured by traditional peg dowels. The lid opens on the original iron loop hinges to reveal a spacious interior. The interior is clean, dry and practical & usable, retaining its original floor-boards. The interior also retains the original candle box with its lid on the right-hand side. The ...
