Description

A Good French Louis XVI Late 18th Century Walnut Enfilade or Sideboard/Buffet with Original Marble Top. Of architectural neoclassical design with three panelled doors incorporating finely carved paterae to the top of each panel. The doors open to reveal a single adjustable shelf. The piece terminates with short tapering legs and spade toes but with an interesting moulding running around the base giving the impression of further panelling. This enfilade incorporates a fine grey and black veined marble top which is original to the piece.
