Description

Antique oak pot board dresser multiple drawers This Antique oak pot board dresser has the lovely and rare feature of the multiple drawer formation. These are set out in 2 rows, the top row with 2 wide drawers and a small central drawer, the lower row with 3 drawers all the same width. Under the drawers is the very attraction shaped apron that joins the well-turned legs and pot board. The top consists of joined planks and a fine gulley to use as a plate rack if required. This antique oak dresser is of an exceptional honey colour and patina. It could be placed in so many places around your home and look stunning wherever you place it. Imagine your family and friends admiring it and not being able to resist running their fingers along the very tactile surfaces. 140cms wide 55ins 46cms deep 18ins 76.5cms high 30 ins All dimensions are approximate, whilst we take as much care as possible, we can be marginally out.
