Description

A small carved folding hexagonal Moorish lamp table / coffee table dating from circa 1920s. Featuring a carved over-sailing top which sits on a carved folding hexagonal base. This table is solid and sturdy with all the carved panels intact, the top carved with an array of flowers and plants. With good original patina, the table is a good small size, the top comes off and the base folds away making it perfect as an occasional table. Tables like these were retailed by companies such as Liberty and co in their Eastern Bazaar department in the 1900s.

Construction/Wood Hardwood Condition Report Solid and sturdy with original patina. Wear and marks commensurate with age. An old mended split to one leg. Base slightly warped. Dimensions Top Width: 57cm Top Depth: 57cm Height: 62cm
