Description

Early 20th century English estate made decoy duck. A true example of an early 20th century English estate made decoy duck form, with glass eyes. With a wonderful, pointed shape and perfect worn painted surface. Made from sectioned piece of pine, this example has an old lead section at its base to help it float. This example was part of a larger collection recently discovered by us in a large country estate sale, in the south of England. A lovely example of what a decoy duck shown represent in form and look in our humble opinion. Origin: English Material: Pine Age: 1910 - 1920 Size: Height 7" x Width 16" x Depth 5" Condition Report A naturally aged item, that has stood the test of time, obvious loss to surface area with loss to wooden areas due to age and natural wear (specifically underneath). Its exceedingly difficult to photograph all the areas of these pieces, therefore we strongly suggest reviewing all the photos provided as part of this advert and propose questions where sections are unclear to avoid disappointment upon purchase. For multiple years we have sold antique and vintage items globally, please expect our items to show relevant age and natural wear, Item...
