Description

Pair of Continental gilt bronze figural table lamps each with putti supported on a spread base, inset with Sevres style porcelain panels. One of the six panels has a crack. See photo. They were originally candlesticks which were later converted to lamps. We have had them rewired and they come with good quality silk shades. They stand 50cm high with the shade. They are heavy, robust and attractive. Circa 1910-1920. We can deliver free of charge in UK mainland and we can calculate the cost for International delivery.
