Description

A very pretty late-19th century brooch depicting a woman in side profile in typical Art Nouveau style, with an unusual sunrise background. The clasp is stamped with tiny French boar's head denoting small objects made of a minimum 800 fineness silver (1838-1984). The side of the medallion is marked ARGENT (silver). The brooch is in very good antique condition with working C clasp and steel pin. Surface wear consistent with age. Size: approx 2.8 x 2.8cm (just over an inch wide). Weight: 10.8g.
