Description

Four pretty glasses with good shape and etched detail from 1920s or 30s. Also we have included a most pleasing decanter with similar etching. They make a very nice combination and can be used for wine or maybe decant the port and leave for a couple of hours and enjoy a larger glass than normal. Sounds good to me. They could take brandy too as the bowl sits well in the hand. Well priced £60 for all pieces. size below is for glasses decanter is 32cms high and 12 in diameter.
