This is a good quality English George V Minty sectional oak bookcase, in the style of a Globe Wernicke, with three glazed tiers and a drawer, circa 1920, in excellent original condition. The sectional bookcase is constructed of three main tiers with a cornice above. Each tier retains the original glass sliding doors, with original working door mechanisms and knobs. The bookcase measures 2ft 10¼" wide, so will fit in a compact space. The working moulded drawer retains its original handles and drawer linings. The sectional bookcase is supported by a shaped plinth. The sectional oak bookcase dismantles into several sections for easy access and transportation. Condition ...
