Description

A good quality pair of silver salts with matching spoons in their original fitted case. The salts are small and dainty with a wavy rim and the spoons have matching bowls with long handles and a ball finial. Each piece is individually hallmarked for London, 1894 and the maker Horace Woodward. The total weight of silver is 27g. Every piece is in very good condition. There are some minor signs of age and use, a few faint surface marks and minor dinks but nothing detrimental. They have been lightly cleaned and polished and are ready for use. The box is good quality with a silk lining and fitted velvet base. The retailer's name "Ollivant & Botsford" is printed in gold under the lid. There are some minor marks inside the box and some small scuffs around the outside but nothing major and it displays well. Approximate Measurements : Box : 5 1/2" (14cm) x 2 1/2" (6.5cm) Length of Spoon : 2" (5cm) Diameter of Salt : 1 1/2" (4cm) Height of Salt : 1" (2.5cm). The best description comes from the photographs so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Tracked UK Delivery £6 Rest of the world £25
