

SA997516

Silver Indian army officers uniform badges

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA997516*Date of manufacture: 1920

Description

These are two very interesting silver army badges. Hodsons Horse was formed in 1857 in India as an irregular cavalry regiment under the command of William Stephen Raikes Hodson. The regiment underwent a number of name changes these are the 9th. The badges depict two crossed Lances, are each marked to the back for London 1917 and the Goldsmiths & Silversmiths mark. Both in super condition, both have fully working pins. Large pin H 4.7 cm W 3 cm Small pin H 3 cm W 2.4 cm Would be prepared to split if requested.

Seller Details

Digby Antiques (Wiltshire)

Wiltshire United Kingdom

Tel: 07710 931929

International Tel: +44 7710 931929

