Description

A nicely made 19thc pipe rackoriginally painted, which has mostly worn away to leave a good natural patina...it is decorated with two churchwardens pipes and two briar pipes....also a box containing matches and a tobacco jar....in very good condition and if you were not a smoker, it is just the right size to take pens in the rack....glued on the back is what looks like an old page from the game "hangman", we used to play as younger children to sharpen our spelling and word-decoding skills..... English. C1860-90.
