Description

A beautiful mahogany desk chair dating from the mid to late 19th Century. It is a good quality comfortable chair and is very well made. It is an unusual ornate design with scrolling arms, turned finials and a beautifully carved pierced back-splat. It has an upholstered seat with studded border and it stands on turned legs joined by a double stretcher. It is approximately 31" (79cm) high and the arms are 24 1/2" (62cm) wide. It is 26" (66cm) deep and the seat is approximately 17 3/4" (45cm) high. It is in very good condition for its age. It has developed a lovely aged patina with a rich colour and is structurally very sound. There are signs of age and use and it is not without a few small marks here and there but nothing detrimental or untoward. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photographs so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
