Description

A mahogany side table with an attractive bow front dating from the early 19th Century. It has one long drawer with brass swan neck handles and it stands on elegant tapering turned legs. Nice small proportions, perfect as a side table or a small writing desk. It is in good condition for its age. The drawer opens smoothly and is generally clean and tidy inside. There are some minor signs of age and use, some surface marks and light knocks around the legs and a few minor marks but nothing detrimental. Due to the overhanging top the base of the table is a darker colour to the top having not been exposed to as much sunlight but it still displays well. It has been cleaned and gently polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photographs so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
