Description

A superb Georgian mahogany two-tier dumb waiter dating from the late 18th / early 19th century. It has two graduated circular mahogany shelves, each with a pierced brass gallery. It is supported by a central turned column and it stands on tripod legs with its original brass castors below. It has a lovely rich colour and the mahogany has a wonderful patina. It is in good condition for its age and is strong and sturdy. There are some minor signs of age and use, a few small surface marks and light knocks but nothing detrimental and there are no major damages. It has been gently polished and is ready for use. Approximate Measurements : Height : 32" / 81cm Top Diameter : 18 1/2" / 47cm Middle Diameter : 23" / 58cm The best description comes from the photographs so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
