Description

This is a charming child's lambing rocker chair in the Lancashire tradition in super condition dating from around 1780. The chair has a great design from North Yorkshire / Lancashire vernacular country furniture school. This has the traditional high wing back with central carrying hole and good high high rocking handles for the child to grip and rock. A great traditional design with original potty hole to the seat and later upholstered pad seat added in covered leatherette. This is in good sound condition throughout. The chair measures 74 cms high 31 cms wide by 62 cms in depth overall. UK insured packing and delivery is £25
