Description

This is a grand Regency period pier glass mirror in good condition dating from around 1820. The clean mirror plate is mounted within a reeded slip between beautiful spiral acanthus-decorated columns. The pediment with breakfront frieze is boldly decorated with acanthus leaves and anthemion scrolls. The gilding has a good rich antique colour. The mirror is an imposing size at 103cm high by 72cm by 14cm deep. UK delivery can be arranged with our trusted furniture courier and costs £55 plus vat to most destinations.
