Description

An exceptional quality and highly attractive, walnut Victorian period music canterbury. The front and domed top are veneered in figured walnut. It stands on turned legs with their original castors which are continuations of the columns which sit proud of each corner. The top, which has a working key, opens to reveal the original interior with three generous sections for storage of magazines and papers. This canterbury has all its lovely original colour and polished surface and is in excellent strong original condition throughout. Sizes: 22"(56cms) wide, 13 ¾"(35cms) deep, 22"(56cms) high. Date circa 1860.
