Description

Size: 10ft 11in x 4ft 8in (332 x 142cm). Antique Caucasian Shirvan Baku long rug with 'Surhani' garden design. Dated 1310 (1892). A good example of a Shirvan rug, with the sought after garden design often associated with the village of Surahani, which is Northeast of Baku in the Eastern Caucasus. This example is of a large size and attractive colour palette, the borders are well drawn and the chevron design is typical of the Baku region. The rug is a scarce example of a clearly dated Caucasian rug, dated 1310 which converts to 1893 / 1893. The rug is in excellent condition with even wear and medium pile, there are a few scattered old re-weaves which are well blended. The rug has a very slightly faded country house look. The rug is suitable for normal domestic use. The rug has been hand washed and is ready for use or display. Stock Number: R-2580.
