Description

This early 19th-century oil painting by British artist Augustus William Enness RBA (1876-1948) depicts a picturesque view in the sublime Yorkshire Dales. Here, from our elevated vantage point, the undulant scenery extends for miles - across the silvery River Wharfe and out towards a haze of rolling peaks. While in the foreground, the abundant foliage is rendered with deft touches of textured oils. Cattle draw the eye. Enness was a true master of light, working tirelessly to capture nature faithfully in all her beguiling moods. His formative experiences at the Slade School and the Academie Julian providing a solid artistic footing for his prosperous career. He enjoyed Yorkshire and lived in Whitby between 1905 and 1915. Signed in the lower left and held within a gilt frame. Medium: Oil on canvas Overall size: 29" x 25" / 74cm x 64cm Year of creation: c. 1910 Condition: Artwork presents well. Fine craquelure but the paint is stable. Frame with some light wear. Artist's auction maximum: £4,400 British artist Augustus William Enness RBA is predominantly known for his landscapes in oil. Born in Essex, England, he initially trained at the Slade School of Art before enroll...
