Description

A fine quality late Regency or William IV mahogany commode chest. The chest has the most beautifully flame figured Cuban mahogany and the whole has a superb colour and original patina. The front is completely false and lifts to reveal the commode interior. The piece has been beautifully disguised as drawers above a cupboard to the highest level of the cabinetmaker's art including false escutcheons, cockbeaded drawers and wonderful book matched veneers. The interior has been fitted and lined with baize for various uses and would make an excellent drinks cabinet or side table. The chest is in great condition and a lovely piece of period cabinetwork, with a great colour and patina. C.1830 Overall sizes in inches: 26 3/4 wide 20 1/2 deep 31 1/4 high
