Description

Introducing the exquisite Elegant Winfield, a pretty all-brass king-size bed adorned with resplendent graduated rings delicately interspersed with twinkling stars. This opulent masterpiece boasts original porcelain castors, a testament to its timeless beauty. Meticulously restored with great care, every rail has been scrutinized for firmness and each joint examined for a seamless fit. The brass has been gently cleaned, allowing the natural, aged patina to radiate in all its glory. To enhance comfort and support, the side rails have been thoughtfully modified to accommodate wooden slats, perfectly accommodating a standard-sized king mattress measuring 150cm x 200cm. The headboard reaches a height of 135cm, crowned by elegant knobs that beckon to be touched. The footboard, no less magnificent, stands at a height of 113cm. The side rail height, a modest 41cm, ensures ease of access and provides a sense of grandeur. This stately bed has an overall width of 155cm and a length of 217cm, promising ample space for nights filled with unparalleled luxury and tranquility. The price of this remarkable ensemble includes the inclusion of wooden slats, a testament to our commitment...
