Description

An early 19th century open armchair by Miles & Edwards of Oxford street -London. Raised on turned faux rosewood front legs and arm supports with out splayed legs to the rear and all on the original brass casters. Upholstered in blue draylon velvet with a vibrant needlework seat pad and inside back and retaining its original squab cushion. 70cm wide 80cm deep 95cm high 43cm seat height The fabric is serviceable and would benefit from a clean. There is a 50 pence piece sized hole in the front of the needlework seat. this could be patched up from the back quite well. As with all my upholstered seating I do offer upholstery should you wish
