Description

A desirable example of a silver Campaign knife and fork, dating from the end of the Victorian era. This lovely piece has twin mother-of-pearl handles and to the front of the knife, there is a shaped vacant cartouche. The body unclips at the centre and a folding knife and folding fork are revealed. To take apart, the fork must be opened to a 90 degree angle and the pieces slid in opposite directions. These sought after items are very collectable and still have a practical use today. Dimensions below. Postage and packing £8.00 UK £16.00 Europe £22.00 Outside Europe Condition :- Excellent, with no dents or breaks to the blade, tines or handles. The hinges are both strong. Date :- Sheffield 1898. Maker :- John R Watts. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable. Length :- 8 cms. (closed). 14.3 cms. (open). Width :- 1.5 cms. Depth :- 1 cms.
