

SA999435

Early Edwardian Letter Opener
made from an Ibex,

Price

Sold

Item Reference: SA999435

Date of manufacture: 1900

Description

Late Victorian, Early Edwardian Souvenir Letter Opener from Montreaux, Switzerland. Made from Horn and Antler of an Ibex, a wild Alpine Mountain Goat and Goatie Hair. Total length of the knife ca 15 cm. Small chip/kerb on the horn blade, otherwise in generally very good condition. Free special delivery to the UK and Ireland. Please add £ 10 for special delivery to the EU and the USA and Canada. For all other world destinations please ask for a quote.

Internal Ref: SKU 793

Seller Details

Henley Street Antiques

50 Henley Street Stratford upon Avon United Kingdom

Tel: 07580 216 993

International Tel: +44 7580 216 993

