Description

Antique Waltham Bartlett Pocket Watch, 1908. The watch has a stem-winding movement, P S Bartlett grade, which is working nicely. The movement is fully signed and the serial number dates it back to 1908. The Bartlett grade was named after Patten Sergeant Bartlett who was one of the early employees of the Boston Watch Company which went on to become the Waltham Watch Company. He subsequently left Waltham to work for the National Watch Company at Elgin Illinois but eventually returned to Waltham to work as a salesman before opening his own wholesale business. The watch measures 54mm diameter excluding the winding stem and the loop. The case is the gold filled Fortune model and was made in Canada by the American Watch Case Company. The case is in nice condition. The back of the watch has an attractive design with a bird and foliate detail, a little worn down by the years but still clearly visible. Both the bezel and case back are screw fitting, a nice sign of quality. The glass lens is in good condition. The signed double sunk dial is in good condition and it has its original blued steel hands, a subsidiary seconds dial and inner 24 hour dial. The watch comes in ...
