

SA999904

Taxidermy - Late Victorian Stuffed Budgie by Alfred Thomas Taxidermist Gloucester

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA999904*Date of manufacture: 1890

Dimensions

Height = 36 cm (14.2")

Width = 26 cm (10.2")

Description

Circa 1890. Alfred Thomas of 9 college street Gloucester was a noted Victorian taxidermist who often used to great effect the decorative picture frame style of case, his small trade label can just be seen pasted to the back drop amongst the groundwork. The simple Budgie being an exotic bird in its day, and much coveted by Victorian society. 36cm High x 26cm Wide. ----- We are always looking to purchase the finest examples of Taxidermy especially by the likes of Peter Spicer and other great Victorian taxidermists, please contact us if you have anything of interest.

Internal Ref: 23282

Seller Details

Kendall House Antiques Ltd.

Kendall House High Street Chipping Campden Gloucestershire GL55
6AG 7 United Kingdom

Tel: 07880 602715

International Tel: +44 7880 602715

